Reasons for comment:	- Highway Access and Parking - Other
Comments:	As a resident of ashington for 50 years I object to this development for a number of reasons, these are as follows. 1. The access road (church lane) was never intended for the amount of traffic that currently uses it, the relocation of the school, the houses behind the school and the recent development next to the church have increased the traffic way beyond its original design, and the fact it runs past the recreation ground and car park often causes problems with children crossing. This will only be made worse by the extra 100 + vehicles that will
