Comments:	I am strongly in favour of this development, the reality is that we are in need more housing in this area. This area has voted of the ideology that requires more housing to be built but as soon as an application for new housing come in locally everyone is against it. Everyone that puts these comments in and has done so should be ashamed of themselves, you can't have your cake and eat it. Let get on and build what's needed.

Kind regards
